YEAR OF MERCY

Congratulations to the Sisters of St Joseph on 150 years of wonderful works of mercy throughout Australia. Since foundation in 1866 by Mother Mary MacKillop and Fr Julian Tenison Woods the Sisters have lived wonderful lives of mercy and continue to do so into the future. How are we challenged by their lives of mercy?

Sr Helen Saunders has worked in the Orange Parish since 2010 as the Pastoral Associate. Before entering the Josephites, Helen worked for 19 years in Local Government, both in the country and city. As most pastoral people she wears "many hats" and really enjoys the challenges of parish ministry.

Sr Ruth Croome has been a Josephite Sister for well over fifty years. She was involved in secondary education and administration in many Bathurst Diocesan parish schools. Retiring from teaching, she ministered as Pastoral Assistant in the West Bathurst Parish for some years. Then, following Clinical Pastoral Education courses at Royal North Shore Hospital, she became involved in Pastoral Care at St Vincent's Public and Private Hospitals, Macquarie Care Centre Bathurst and is currently the Pastoral Care person at St Vincent's Aged Care Facility.
